PLEASE NOTE:

The Entry Fee will be charged even if the lots are not sold or if they are withdrawn.

No responsibility shall be taken by the Auctioneers for lots that are damaged or lost before, during or after the sale.

Seller's goods should be covered by their own insurance. If in doubt, please check with your insurers.

At the "fall of the hammer" the buyer is deemed to be responsible for the items purchased. Buyers should make their own arrangements for insurance on purchased lots.

Under the Low Voltage Electrical Equipment (Safety Regulations) 1989, we are unable to offer for sale any electrical items unless they have been tested under the said Regulations, and carry a certificate stating the same. An electrician will be on site on the morning of the sale and there will be a reasonable charge made for such testing.

Vehicle registration documents, MOT and plating certificates should be supplied to the Auctioneer 2 days before the sale, numbered for identification.

This Entry Form forms part of Whirledge and Nott Farm Sale Terms of Contract with Sellers and Farm Sales - Terms and Conditions of Sale.
